

Are you interested in developing the thinking skills of children and metacognition strategies?

On the 8th February, 2019, Professor Barry Hymer, an inspirational speaker, will be leading a day at Willingdon Community School from 9.00am-3.00pm.

Barry is an experienced teacher, educational psychologist, trainer, writer, consultant and academic, and is now Emeritus Professor of Psychology in Education at the University of Cumbria in Lancaster. He has delivered keynote and workshop presentations at hundreds of national and international conferences, and works in a training and consultancy capacity.

Barry's book "Puffed Out" won, at the 2018 Education Resources Awards in the Educational Book Award category! The judges commented: "Using a novel approach and a well-known story, Puffed Out introduces pupils to ethics, philosophy and critical thinking.

Only £50, bring your own packed lunch.

Places are limited to 30 so please book soon on finance@st-marks.e-sussex.sch.uk or ring 01825 830375